

COMPLIMENTARY TRAINING: An NPO Board Perspective on Financial Responsibilities

Jessica Rolfe, CPA
Nonprofit Services
Group Leader

As a board member, you have a legal responsibility to protect your nonprofit’s assets by overseeing its financial activities and implementing best practices to protect the organization. This can be challenging!

Join Jessica Rolfe and Jenna Romain of Yeo & Yeo’s Nonprofit Services Group as they present financial issues in “plain” language with the goal of helping you make effective fiscal decisions for your nonprofit.

Jenna Romain, CPA
Nonprofit Services
Group Member

Topics:

- Understanding Financial Statements
- Understanding Budgeting
- Must-Have Policies and Procedures
- Making the Most Out of Your 990
- Upcoming FASB Changes
- Tax Reform Update for NPOs

This free training is great for new board members as well as experienced board members looking to gain a better understanding of the financial responsibilities and nuances of NPOs.

Tuesday, May 1, 2018
3:00 to 6:00 p.m.
Yeo & Yeo – Saginaw Office
5300 Bay Road | Saginaw, MI

Wednesday, May 2, 2018
3:00 to 6:00 p.m.
Yeo & Yeo – Ann Arbor Office
1450 Eisenhower Place | Ann Arbor, MI

A networking hour will follow with appetizers, drinks and the opportunity to speak one-on-one with CPAs, consultants and other nonprofit board members.

Register by April 24 to Nikki at 734.769.1331 or nikric@yeoandyeo.com.

Please share this invitation with other NPO board members and professionals who might benefit from this free event.